Dear Corvi,

This is just a short note to thank you for your excellence in helping me with my finances. You have always shown strong professionalism in your work and how you treat me.

Also, you are a man of your word. I asked for a copy of my document and you sent it to me, receiving, within five (5) days.

You have always answered all of my questions truthfully, clearly, and completely. This shows me that you are a man of good virtues and I am glad and proud that I know you.

Thanks Again,

Charles (Dusty) Drake
